

Here is information about some really exciting events in Reynoldston in the coming weeks. Please pass this onto others who you feel would appreciate learning more about what is taking place in Reynoldston.

Saturday 14th November.....A cup of Tea , Coffee, Cake, Lunch.....or more!

Rose, Hip and Vintage 'Pop Up' Tea Rooms and Traditional Craft Day is back in Reynoldston Village Hall this Saturday.

Rose, Hip and Vintage has delicious homemade cakes and a selection of light lunches including paninis, homemade cawl, soup and homemade savoury tarts all served in beautiful vintage china.

Craft Workshops: Fantastic crafters will be on hand to teach some of those traditional crafts that are as beautiful as they are rewarding. We have crochet, knitting and sewing available this weekend. Workshops will be held for all skill levels. Complete beginners classes start at 10.30am. Cost is £20pp for a two hour class which includes tea and cake. Places are limited. The afternoon is aimed at improvers or crafter's looking for inspiration! Danni will be working on Christmas crochet baubles, Adrienne will be working on knitted bunting and Sarah will be helping you create fabulous appliqued cushions! These sessions are charged at £6 per hour. Minimum age of 8 for all craft workshops. If you are already proficient but fancy coming along to enjoy the atmosphere of the tea rooms and some cake, then bring along your knitting (or your sewing or crochet) and have a natter with a friend or likeminded people!

The Children's Craft Workshops: This weekend the children will be decorating Christmas biscuits, decorating and making Christmas tree decorations, wooden spoon Christmas characters or Christmas lanterns. Cost is £10 per child, sessions last about an hour and include a drink and a sandwich.

Parent and Child Craft Table: Christmas card making or pipe cleaner decorations. These will cost £2 per child to cover the cost of the craft materials and will include a drink. There will also the usual colouring and play dough table available for free!!!

Vintage Shop: with some fabulous and individual Christmas gift ideas including beautiful up-cycled hand painted 'shabby chic' furniture for purchase.
